

Yushan Fellow Program

Performance Report

University and Appointed Faculty: NCCU, International Doctoral Program in Asia Pacific Studies (IDAS)	Academic Field: Social Studies
Name of the Yushan (Young) Fellow: Harry Harding	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yushan Fellow <input type="checkbox"/> Yushan Young Fellow

Assessment of effectiveness of tangible work (The implementation results can be presented cumulatively, including the annual performance report of the second year, which can include the results of the first year and the second year)

Main points of assessment	The anticipated goals	Concrete work achievements or results	Supporting documents
1. Chief content of the Yushan (Young) Fellows' research work and overview of full research process.	1. To complete “A Broken Engagement: the United States and China from Clinton to Trump”. The book intends to analyze the history of U.S.-China relations while applying the theories of international relations. The content of the book is mainly supported by secondary literary sources. This includes the compilation of a rich amount of both Chinese language sources and Taiwanese historical materials. It is expected that the field work conducted in Taiwan will have a positive effect in the completion of this book. 2. Expected completion timeframe: three (3) years	A contract has already been signed with Polity publishing house for the publishing of the book “ A Broken Engagement: the United States and China from Clinton to Trump ”.

Main points of assessment	The anticipated goals	Concrete work achievements or results	Supporting documents
	For this goal, a research team comprising young scholars and doctoral candidates with expertise in international relations was established. Main tasks included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Assist team members' application to the integrated program of the Ministry of Science and Technology</li> <li>-Submission of papers to top international journals</li> <li>-Publishing of special issues in domestic journals</li> </ul>
2. The link between Yushan (Young) Fellows' future research topics and the university's development and the anticipated benefits (including Higher Education SPROUT Project): (1) Fellows' research plan and goals (2) The link between scholars' research content and the university's development (3) Specific work performance or achievements, please include the mid-term progress report of the particular research plan (4) Anticipated goals (including qualitative or quantitative working performance or results) ※ If there is a quantitative work achievements, please fill out "Quantitative Assessment Form"	It is expected that Professor Harry Harding will cooperate with the university's higher education bilingual learning curriculum. Moreover, it is hoped that, through Professor Harding's specialization in international politics, an improvement in the quality of the school's master's and doctoral programs can be achieved. Through a series of courses and the establishment of a research team, it is believed the project led by Professor Harding will greatly contribute to the university's vision of internationalization through the bilingual learning plan. Furthermore, the university also hopes that, through Professor Harding's already established international academic resources, a further push towards the internationalization of the university can be achieved through the promotion of international cooperation, especially with the deepening of the current cooperative agreement with the University of	In order to assist with the implementation of the university's bilingual learning program, Professor Harding has taught several English-taught courses; has given numerous academic speeches and established a research team. Thanks to Professor Harding's assistance, the university has maintained a friendly cooperative relationship with the University of Virginia.

Main points of assessment	The anticipated goals	Concrete work achievements or results	Supporting documents
	Virginia.
3. Support provided by the university and the project's original goals (please specify the type of support or funds provided by the university to assist in research, such as research equipment and funds, research assistant personnel expenses, accommodation, relocation, children's education assistance, etc.)	The university will provide a fully equipped research room, moving expenses, living expenses and a roundtrip business class air ticket for the spouse.	During the first term, the university already provided a fully equipped research room, moving expenses, living expenses and a roundtrip business class air ticket for the spouse.
4. Yushan Fellows ' team cooperation (please list team members and cooperation methods) (Yushan Young Fellows don't need to fill in this)	Professor Harding will form a research team that includes both young scholars and doctoral candidates which will focus on researching topics on international relations theories, U.S.-China relations and Asian regionalism. Professor Harding will lead the research team to analyze and conduct comparative analyses regarding how Asian countries position themselves in the face of increasing U.S.-China competition. From this perspective, the research team aims to analyze the strategies and national capabilities of Taiwan, Japan, South Korea and some Southeast Asian countries. In addition,	During the past three (3) years, Professor Harding formed a research team. Currently, a new team is being assembled and will, like the last research group, consist of both young scholars and doctoral candidates. In the coming term, the university will assist Professor Harding in assembling a research team composed of researchers with specialization in their fields of study, with themes relating to international relations theory, U.S.-China relations and Asian regionalism. Professor Harding will lead the research team to analyze and conduct comparative analyses regarding how Asian countries position themselves in the face of

Main points of assessment	The anticipated goals	Concrete work achievements or results	Supporting documents
	Professor Harding will use his foreign academic resources to assist the university in cooperation and exchanges, assist with the internationalization of the university, promote international exchanges and cooperation, with special attention to the deepening of the existing cooperative agreement with the University of Virginia.	increasing U.S.-China competition. From this perspective, the research teams aims to analyze the strategies and national capabilities of Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, and some Southeast Asian countries. In addition, Professor Harding will use his foreign academic resources to assist the university in cooperation and exchanges, assist with the internationalization of the university, promote international exchanges and cooperation, with special attention to the deepening of the existing cooperative agreement with the University of Virginia
5. Yushan (Young) Fellow should aim to cooperate and exchange foreign academic resources, which should be linked to university development. It's suggested to make good use of these global academic network resources to assist the internationalization of the host university and promote international exchanges and cooperation, including teachers and students exchange activity between universities, international research collaborations, dual degree programs and so on.	Professor Harding will assemble a research team consisting of young scholars and doctoral candidates from the International Doctoral Program in Asia-Pacific Studies (IDAS). The themes that will be covered include: international relations theory, U.S.-China relations and Asia regionalism. Professor Harding will lead the research team to analyze and conduct comparative analyses regarding how Asian countries position themselves in the face of increasing U.S.-China competition. From this perspective, the research team aims to analyze the strategies and national capabilities of Taiwan, Japan, South Korea and some Southeast Asian countries. In addition, Professor Harding will use his foreign academic resources to assist the university in cooperation and exchanges, assist with the internationalization of the university, promote international	Professor Harding have been working on his book “A Broken Engagement: the United States and China from Clinton to Trump” with his research teams. Plenty of meeting had been held by Professor Harding and the University of Virginia to encourage deepening the cooperation with NCCU. Two exchange students are arriving in Taiwan next semester due to the latest agreement.

Main points of assessment	The anticipated goals	Concrete work achievements or results	Supporting documents
	exchanges and cooperation, with special attention to the deepening of the existing cooperative agreement with the University of Virginia.

Quantitative Assessment Form

Item		Results and concrete work performance	Explanation
1. Manpower training		Doctoral courses: _____6_____ Graduate courses: _____ Undergraduate courses: _____ Doctoral students: _____ persons Master's students: _____6____ persons Undergraduate students: _____ persons Others: _____ persons
2. Papers and research works	Domestic	Journal papers: _____ Academic books and papers in books: _____ Conference papers: _____ Technical reports: _____2_____ Others: _____
	Overseas	Journal papers: _____5_____ Academic books and papers in books: _____3_____ Conference papers: _____1_____ Technical reports: _____ Others: _____
3. Keynote speaker		_____43_____ panels /sessions
4. Patents (including patents pending )	Domestic	Quantity: _____
	Overseas	Quantity: _____
	<input type="checkbox"/> N/A
5. Industry-Academia Cooperation		Number of partnered enterprises : _____
		Number of industry-academia research projects: _____
6. Technology licensing		Technology licensing cases: _____
		Total technology licensing royalties ( amount ) NT$ _____
<input type="checkbox"/> N/A
7. Others			